To All Telephone Subscribers.

The number of subscribers has increased to such an extent that we find it a difficult matter to send a collector to call on each one; consequently, after the 15th of October, we will dispense with the services of a collector, except to the subscribers of business telephones. On these, the collector will continue to call monthly but all other subscribers will be expected to call at the office and settle.

The bills to cover rental for the current month with the tolls for the preceding month will be due on the 15th day of the month at the Company's office. Unless payment is made on the 15th or before the 20th day of the month, the service will be denied and after the 20th, if the bill is not paid on or before the 25th day of the month, the telephone will be removed.

In cases where a telephone is removed for a failure to pay a bill and it is desired to have the telephone re-installed, the subscriber will, first be expected to pay all arrears and a fee to cover the expense of removal and re-installation.

It is not our intention to inconvenience anyone but we hope, with the support of our patrons to establish a plan which will be beneficial to patron and company alike.

Very respectfully,

You Know This Is True.

How do you like to be deceived?

Many a time you have bought package of medicine that looked like a great big money's worth. Then when you got home and took off the wrapper or carton you found—what?

Just a slender, long-necked bottle with all the sides deeply sunken—containing about half what you would naturally expect from the size of the package.

Even if the medicine was good, you didn't like the trickery of it, did you?

Wish you'd ask us to open any package and show you the honest bottle they use all through the line. There is no deception. You get all you expect for your money. The Penslar policy is to play fair; to give full value; to refrain from any deception; to say plainly what any remedy will do, but without exaggeration; and let you know exactly what you are using. The formula is on the label.

This sort of rugged, old-fashioned squareness in every little detail is bound to mean that the Penslar Remedies themselves are of the highest quality—and that is why we spend our own money to recommend them to you. We know they are the finest that money and skill can produce.
